SAINT LUKE'S SOCIETY

OFFICERS

FRED CARL WOLF, JR.President

RALPH KUTAITVice-President

MARTIN DEWEY GABLESecretary and Treasurer

In 1946 the St. Luke's Society grew out of the old St. Luke's Missionary Society. Every student of the Theological School is a member of the organization, whose purpose is to coordinate extra-curricular activities and bring the alumni closer to the school. Its many activities include the publication of the THEOLOG, the sponsoring of recognized lecturers, missionary aids, social functions, and intramural athletics. Such activities are performed through an executive council and six major committees.

"The Cap and Gown have always been worn by the faculty and students of the University. They are symbols of that high and pure learning which is the ideal of the University. The insignia carries with it definite privileges and responsibilities and is awarded only to upperclassmen who are worthy of distinction because of diligence in the pursuit of their studies. To the Order of Gownmen is entrusted the maintenance of student traditions and the time-honored customs of Sewanee."

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The President, Vice-President, and Secretary of the Order of Gownsmen plus one member from each fraternity and from the Independents form the Executive Committee, which meets the first week of each month and prepares the agenda for the monthly meeting of the Order of Gownsmen.

DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE

The Discipline Committee is composed of one Gownsmen from each fraternity and one from the Independents. The enforcement of student laws and regulations is placed in their hands.

PROCTORS

HONOR COUNCIL

J. B. Sahl, J. C. Bradshaw, G. Y. Ballentine, J. B. Cheatham, T. K. Lamb, B. I. Jackson.

Top

The position of Proctor is one of the highest a student can attain at Sewanee. These men are elected each year by the graduating and returning Proctors with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor, the Dean of the College, and the Dean of Men. Through them is accomplished the maintenance of discipline and orderly conduct in the dormitories, the dining halls, the chapel and on the campus in general.

Bottom

The Honor Council, consisting of two seniors, two juniors, one sophomore, one freshman, and one theological student, is elected by the student body at the beginning of each year. It is the duty of the Honor Council to try any violations of the Honor Code and recommend proper disciplinary action.

Top

Three faculty members appointed by the vice-chancellor and two students elected by the Order of Gownsmen compose the Publications Board. Editors of the paper, yearbook, and magazines are non-voting members of the board. Mainly an advisory group, its purposes are three-fold: to nominate editors and approve nominations for other posts in school publications; to give advice to the editors of the publications; and to supervise the allocation of publications funds.

Bottom

This committee exercises general supervision over organized student activities and is empowered to make allocations from the student activities fund to publications, athletics, dramatic and musical productions and similar activities. Student members are elected from the Order of Gownsmen.

Mr. Cheston, Dr. Frierson (temporary chairman), T. Holt, Mr. Long, J. W. Stallings.

Bottom

Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary society, promotes scholarship among the students of the University. The chapter at Sewanee, Tennessee Beta, was established in 1926.

Alpha Alpha Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa elects men from the Order of Gownsmen who have demonstrated leadership on the campus. Membership is limited to three per cent of the student body.

Top

The Pan-Hellenic Council is composed of two representatives from each fraternity, the president and one other member. Its purpose is to coordinate and regulate the activities of the social fraternities on the campus. The Council sets rushing and pledging rules and promotes inter-fraternity friendship and interest. The officer-ships of the Council rotate among the several fraternities.

The Independent Executive Committee has been very successful in organizing non-fraternity men and stray Greeks into a more closely related body which has taken increasing interest in campus activities. As the controlling body of the independent group, it establishes and executes the group's policies.

Sopherim is the mother chapter of Sigma Upsilon, national collegiate literary fraternity. As the literary society of the University, the group seeks to promote interest in literary matters by the securing of lecturers during the school year and by its sponsorship of the Mountain Goat, the University magazine. Members are elected to the society twice each school year on the basis of original creative or critical submissions.

Top

The Debate Council is the governing board of intercollegiate and intramural public speaking at Sewanee. The Council consists of ten undergraduate members elected each Spring by the old members from those students who have done outstanding work in debate competition during that year.

Bottom

The promotion of musical appreciation and understanding in the University through the presentation of national and local musicians and speakers is the main objective of the Music Club. A group of twenty-five students who join by invitation, the club holds about two program meetings a month.

Top

For the theatrical side of life, Sewanee offers Purple Masque, the dramatic club composed of students and faculty. To become a member it is necessary to acquire twenty-five points through backstage work and acting.

Bottom

Composed of men who have received recognition for their achievement in college dramatics,

Alpha Psi Omega is the largest of the several national honorary collegiate dramatic societies. Each year the members of the Sewanee cast, Beta Tau, undertake the presentation of three one-act plays, with the cooperation of Purple Masque. Each of these plays is directed by a different member of Alpha Psi Omega. Eligibility for membership in Alpha Psi Omega is based on a point system, based on both the acting and backstage work of members of Purple Masque. Membership is limited to fifteen.

Top

The Wellington Club is a society formed for the purpose of maintaining, strengthening, and preserving the Anglo-Saxon heritage of Sewanee. Membership is restricted to those of noble birth.

Bottom

A closer study of Spanish and Latin-American social customs is achieved by Spanish-speaking students through the medium of this organization. Study is furthered by numerous informal meetings of the group.

THE ATHLETICS

Coaches Snell, Clark, White, Bridgers, Barr

Though the Tigers did not have a winning season this past year, there is consolation in the fact that five of the six losses suffered were by one-touchdown margins, and that Coach White's boys were in there fighting every minute of every game. Only Trinity managed to rack up a convincing win over the game Purple and White eleven.

After defeating Southwestern and Wabash during the season, the Tigers experienced sweet revenge in the final game of the year, downing Washington University by a 7-0 score on snow-covered Hardee Field. The victory somewhat soothed the feelings of those members on the squad who had played in the 1948 game, when Washington spoiled an undefeated season for the Tigers.

Captain Ralph "Bulldog" Reed was named to the 1950 Little All-America squad for his outstanding play in the line. Other standouts in the line during the season were Nick Willard,

Co-Captain Tommy Lamb, Coach White, Captain Ralph Reed

Tommy Lamb, and Tommy Robertson. In the backfield, Zeke McDavid, Jim Ed Mulkin, Tommy McKeithen, and George Nichopoulos were the ace performers.

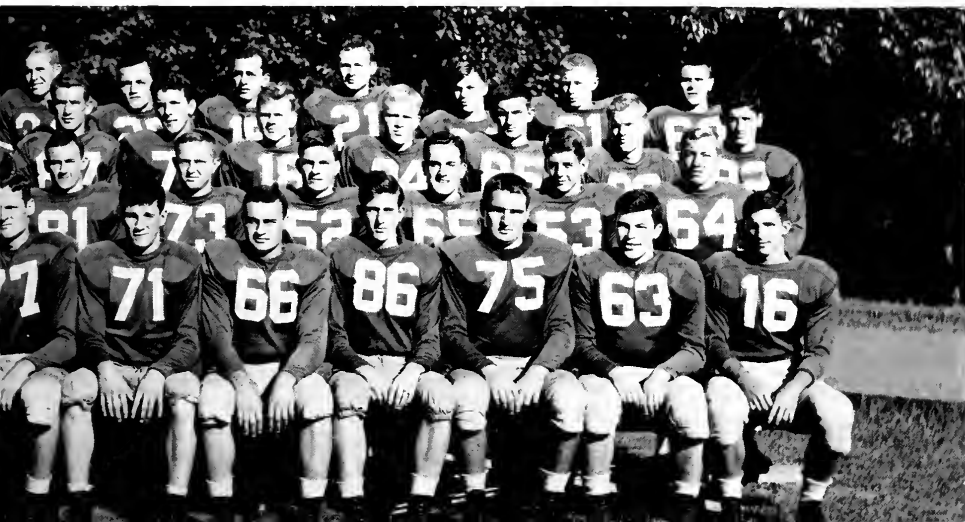

The past season did not provide students and residents with much opportunity to see the team perform, since only three of the nine games on the schedule were played on the Mountain.

The Tigers scored a total of 101 points in nine games, and allowed opponents to cross into Sewanee paydirt to the tune of 131 points. They were only blanked once, by Trinity, in the first game of the season.

If the Army doesn't bite too deeply into Coach White's tentative roster, he should manage to field a team next year that will display the spirit and fight that is found in all Sewanee athletic teams, with plenty of spirited action in store for the spectator during the coming season.

SEWANEE 0 TRINITY 40

Sewanee's first encounter with an Eastern school since the Dartmouth game of 1940 brought a 40-0 defeat at the hands of Trinity College of Hartford, Connecticut.

For the first five minutes it looked as though the Purple's pre-season hopes were well founded, but a couple of fumbles and a freak pass reception by the brother Episcopalians started a rout which was never seriously stemmed. The game showed how important the line-backing of injured Frank Watkins could be.

Built on Dave Wendel, the Sewanee passing attack did not materialize, practically all of the otherwise beautiful passes being too long. On the brighter side of the picture were the brilliant individual performances of Jim Ed Mulkin at wingback, the steady punting and tackle play of Lee Thomas, the good work of lone Yankee Nick Willard at guard and the play of Ralph Reed at the other guard.

Trinity played excellent early-season ball and Sewanee was ragged in its teamwork and timing.

SEWANEE 25 SOUTHWESTERN 6

George Nichopoulos crossed the goal line four times in leading the revamped Tigers to an impressive 25-6 victory over Southwestern of Memphis. A rugged Tiger defense kept the Lynx well in hand for most of the evening as Sewanee notched its first win of the young season.

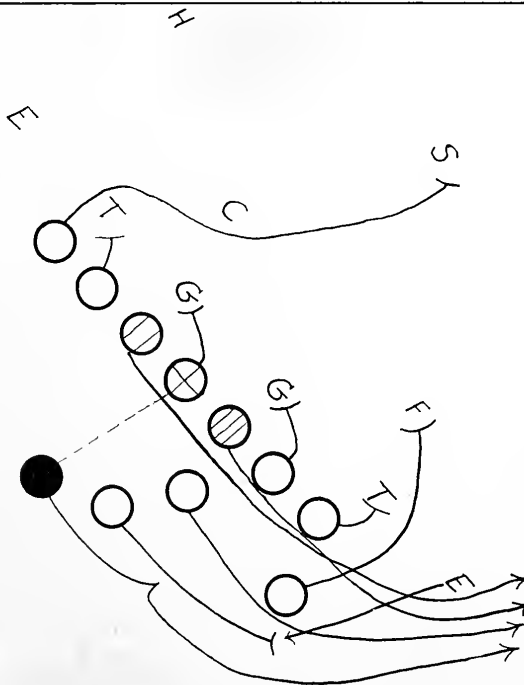

Early in the first quarter Nichopoulos scored twice, once on a plunge from the 1 and a few seconds later on an end sweep from the 10. The latter tally was set up by a Lynx fumble recovered by Jim Whitaker.

Two T.D.'s were not enough for the speedy Greek as he added his third of the night just before the end of the first period, this time from the 2-yard line.

The second period witnessed Southwestern's lone score, which came through the air. Sewanee led 19-6 at half time.

Action was slow in the second half with Sewanee's final touchdown coming in the final period. Dave Jones set up the score with a 15 yard dash to the 3, when "Plato" Nichopoulos again carried the mail to paydirt.

A final Lynx march was stopped short and Sewanee was driving again at the game's end.

SEWANEE 7 MILLSAPS 14

The Tigers suffered their second loss in three starts at the hands of Millsaps by a score of 14-7. Playing in Winchester, the Purple looked like a sure winner in the first few plays when Nichopoulos and Jones in a series of runs brought the ball to the Majors' 1-yard line. But the Millsaps line held and Sewanee never again showed coordination in their plays.

For the opponents, a senior named Miller played a beautiful game, crashing into the Sewanee secondary time after time to be stopped by dependable Jim Ed Mulkin at the safety post. Miller scored late in the first half and Sewanee came back early in the fourth quarter to tie the game 7-7, sparked by the line plunges of Zeke McDavid. Just seven plays later Miller again went over to put the game on ice for the Mississippians. Charlie Mac Lindsay, a light linebacker, showed promise on defense while Whitaker, Keyser and Elam stood out at tackle.

This was Sewanee's first defeat on the gridiron at the hands of Millsaps.

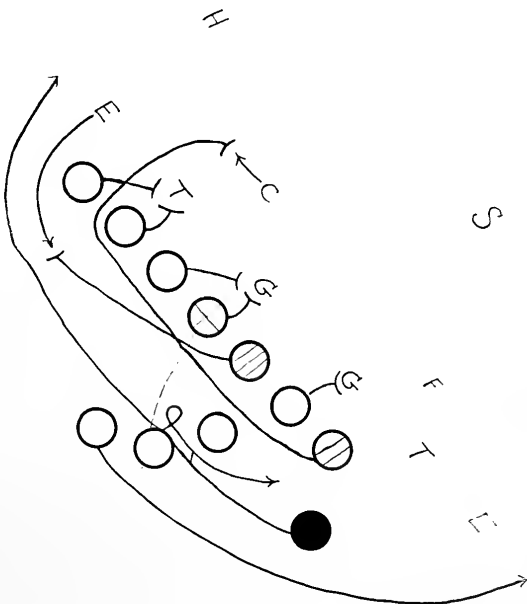

SEWANEE 6 MISS. COLLEGE 13

By scoring 7 points in the last couple of minutes Mississippi College broke a 6-6 tie to defeat Coach White's jinxed warriors in Clinton, Mississippi.

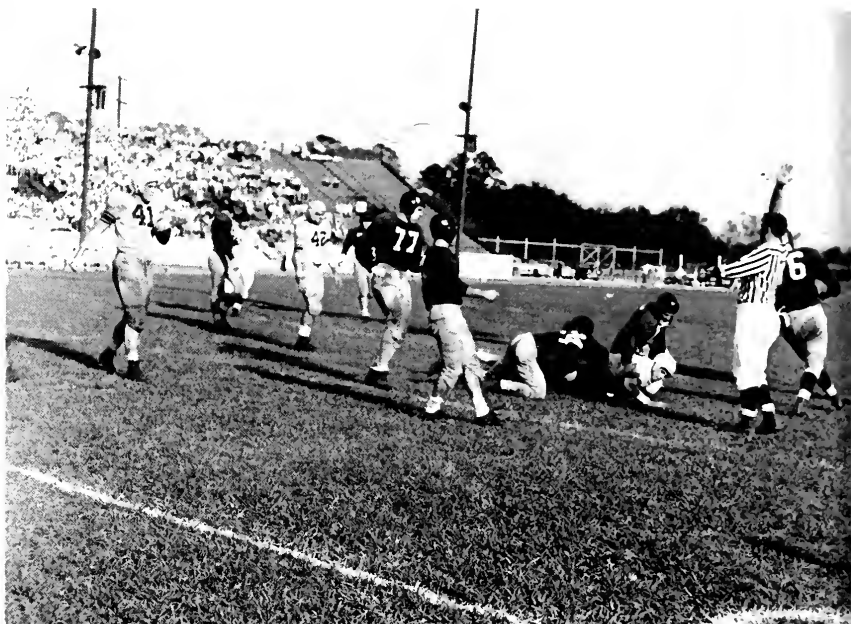

Three times Sewanee carried the ball to the one-yard line and failed to go over. Several fumbles were costly, one of them directly resulting in the opponent's first touchdown by scatback Dave Lee. Sewanee's lone marker was a monument to Mulkin's brilliant 60-yard punt return.

Jim Wakefield, who began punting for the Tigers in this game, clinched the job with his steady kicking. Tom Robertson played his best game at defensive end. Thomas, Watkins, Willard, and Reed were outstanding in the Purple line. Porter carried Sewanee's hopes high with an end-around to the one-yard line in the third period but again the spark was lacking to go over. Tom McKeithen made several good runs off tackle.

SEWANEE 8 FLORIDA STATE 14

In a game calculated to satisfy the most exacting spectators, and there were almost 15,000 of them, Sewanee played one of its best games in holding Florida State University to a 14-8 score.

Punter Jim Wakefield set up the first score, a 2-point safety, by bouncing a 65-yard boot off the F.S.U. safety man, who was then tackled behind his goal. This came after a scoreless first half in which the Purple made 5 first downs to Florida's 2.

The deciding play of the game was an over-the-center pass which fell into the hands of F.S.U.'s Hewett, who ran 50 yards to make the score 6-2. The extra point was good. The Seminoles scored once more in the closing minutes of the game just before a strong Tiger attack opened up. Everybody clicked, especially Wendel, who completed five successive passes, one to Gunby just over the goal. Score 14-8.

Not only was this game played before F.S.U.'s largest homecoming crowd, but it was the largest crowd to see a Sewanee game since the 50-year celebration at Vanderbilt in 1941.

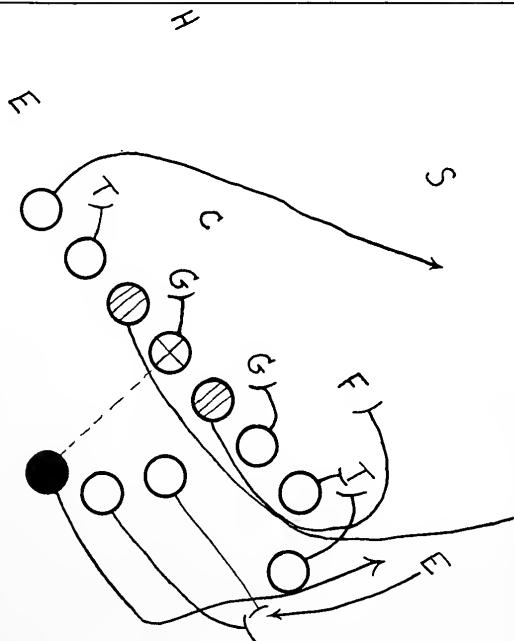

SEWANEE 20 WABASH 0

Sewanee was definitely ready for Wabash, the Tigers' first home opponent of the 1950 season. In contrast to the extremely cold, icy weather, the Purple aggregation was hot and especially Tommy McKeithen; for the senior tailback tore the Indiana team's line to shreds as he gained 146 yards in 15 carries for an average of almost 10 per try. He tallied one of the Sewanee's three touchdowns, the others being scored by Bill Porter and promising fullback Dave Jones.

Again the brawn which made tackle the strongest spot on the team was used to good advantage with Keyser, Thomas, Elam, and Whitaker at their best. Freshman Jim Wakefield's punting continued to improve and alternate captain Tommy Lamb played one of his best games.

Coach White, with an eye to the future, tried a wide variety of combinations. Dave Wendel came in for two passes, both complete, giving him seven straight in two games.

Heath was in good form as were Willard, Watkins, and Graham. In fact the victory was a team victory with eleven men playing together to defeat an aggregation which dopsters had called a three-touchdown favorite before game time. Final score—Sewanee 20—Wabash 0.

SEWANEE 8 CENTRE 16

Six fumbles, five of them recovered by undefeated Centre College, proved to be a determining factor in a 16-8 victory for the Kentucky team.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Praying Colonels forged ahead in the second period 3-0 with a field goal. On the next play fullback David Jones ran back the kickoff 82 yards for a T.D. The half ended 8-3 after the Tigers picked up a safety on a blocked kick.

In the third quarter, Centre scored on a series of power plays and passes, taking the lead, 9-8. As the fourth quarter opened, the aerial threat of Long to Acton materialized and added another seven points for the Colonels.

On the whole, Sewanee's defense was better than the score indicated. Whitaker, Willard and Reed were standouts in the line while Gunby, Mulkin, and McDavid starred for the Purple in the backfield.

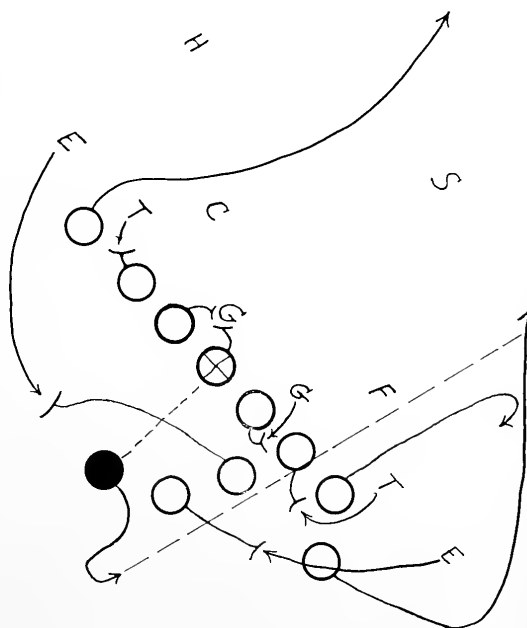

SEWANEE 20 HAMPDEN-SYDNEY 28

Hampden-Sydney's brilliant passing quarterback, Bill Blair, proved too much for the traveling Tigers as he led the Virginians to a well-earned 28-20 victory over a hard-charging Sewanee eleven.

The Tiger offense was rolling, sparked by a smooth-working line and some exceptional passing and running by its backs. But the Hampden-Sydney boys never let up in the tight contest, pushing across for tallies in each quarter of play. In the fading minutes of the game Sewanee was threatening the narrow touchdown margin held by the Virginia eleven.

Coach White's boys never gave up and in the dying minutes Dave Wendel heaved 35 yards to Mulkin who went the remaining distance for a T.D., the play covering 60 yards. The attempted conversion was wide and when the final gun sounded the Death Valley aggregation had garnered a 28-20 decision.

Outstanding in the forward wall of the Sewanee Tigers were Whitaker, Graham, Lindsey and Reed. The offensive play of backs McKeithen, Wendel, and McDavid was also shining in defeat.

SEWANEE 7 WASHINGTON U. 0

In zero weather on Hardee Field, the Purple Tigers closed out the 1950 season with a brilliant 7-0 victory over highly-favored Washington University of St. Louis. In the third quarter Tom McKeithen entered the game and following a sustained drive to the Bear's 25 yard line he tossed a fourth-down pass to Zeke McDavid, who caught it on the 4 and stepped into the end zone for the game's only score. Porter's extra point was good.

The big Tiger line played one of its finest games in hlding the Bears at bay for most of the contest. Lee Thomas, Nick Willard, Capt. Ralph Reed, and Jim Whitaker formed a wall in the middle which Washington could not penetrate. The Bears' chief offensive weapon, the passing of Stocker, was dull most of the time due to the hard charging of the Purple line.

It was an especially gratifying triumph for Coach White's Sewanee team; for it was that same team, for the most part, that spoiled a perfect season for the Tigers in 1948. The jubilant victors hoisted Capt. Reed and coaches White and Bridgers to their shoulders and carried them from the ice-covered field.

With a record of nine wins and a single loss, the Snakes of Sigma Nu gathered in their fourth consecutive intramural football trophy. The outcome of the season standings was carried right down to the wire, the Snakes having to score a win in the final game of the year before they could claim the trophy.

Close behind the Sigma Nus were the Phis, with a record of eight wins, one loss, and a tie. The SAEs snagged third place with a seven won, one lost, two tied record.

Chosen on the Intramural All-Star team were: Gordon Warden, Frank Clark, Dorsey Boulton and Gene Eyler (tie) as backs, with Charley Hall, Van Davis and Jim Monroe (tie) as ends, and Cecil Harper, first string center. Honorable mention went to Barrie Trebor-McConnell and John Broome (centers) and John Foster (end). Warden was chosen outstanding back, and Charley Hall outstanding lineman.

B A S K E T B A L L

The Sewanee Tiger cagers compiled a respectable record of 7 wins and 10 losses during the 1950-51 basketball campaign. The schedule, no soft touch by any measure, included such teams as the University of Tennessee, Vanderbilt, and Birmingham-Southern, teams always tough in any league. Lon Varnell again tutored the aggregation. He was assisted for the second year by Bill Bomar, student "B" team coach. Guards and returning lettermen Bob Lockard and Buck Cain served as co-captains of a squad of young but promising group of candidates.

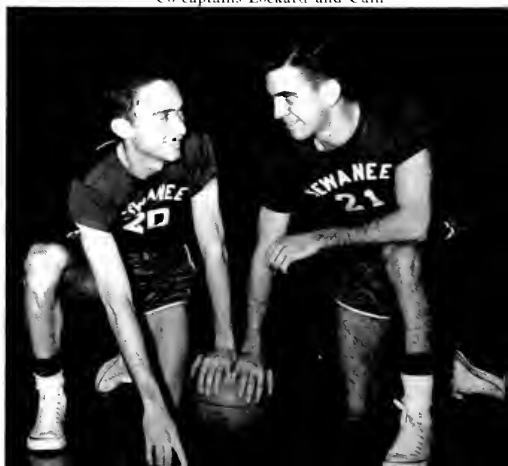

The season was opened at Lebanon, Tennessee, against the formidable Cumberland outfit. Sewanee, although leading at half time by a score of 22-20, was unable to maintain the pace set by the freshman-studded Cumberland five and came out on the short end of a 52-49 count. The Tigers were definitely not "up" for their initial encounter.

On Dec. 5 the scene of action was at Knoxville, Tennessee. The opponent—the famed Tennessee Vols. Varnell's men showed a complete reversal of form in their first encounter with Southeastern competition and managed, although clearly outmanned, to hold Tennessee to a 2-point lead at halftime. The final score was 70-51 as Tennessee's quality and quantity began to tell.

Sewanee's home schedule was opened in a fine manner. Jim Rox, Buck Cain, Bill Crawford, and freshman Jack Stowers led their team to the first victory of the season, a 61-57 defeat of the Praying Colonels from the basketball state itself, Kentucky.

Co-captains Lockard and Cain

On Dec. 12 Sewanee played perhaps their poorest game of the still young season. The Tigers were literally run off the floor by a mediocre outfit from Middle Tennessee State College. Our performers hit about 15 per cent of their shots from the floor. They were also unable to hit consistently from the free throw line.

In the final game before the Christmas holidays revenge was gained at the expense of Cumberland College. The second home floor victory was a sweet one as the Tigers performed as they were capable of doing.

Lockard, guard; Crawford, forward; Rox, center; Cain, guard; Stowers, forward. Not shown: Shafer, center; Knipp, forward.

The worst loss of the season was suffered on Jan. 6 at the hands of a red-hot team from Birmingham Southern College. Our boys were clearly tight, perhaps due to some extent to the just completed holidays. The score was 81-37 as the Southern Panthers took charge from the opening whistle and never let up.

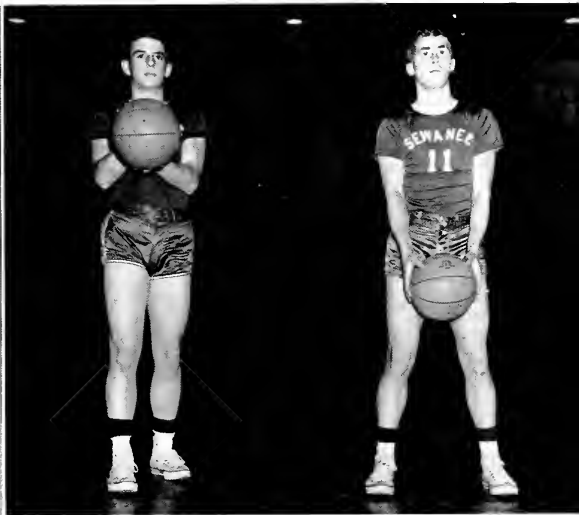

The Tigers took to the road again on Jan. 12 and were able to jump into the win ledger at the expense of Lambuth College. Jim Rox contributed 21 points to a winning effort which was almost foiled by the scrapping Lambuth boys in the closing minutes of the contest.

At Paris, Tennessee, on Jan. 13 Sewanee was beaten by Bethel College 69-52. We again ran into a hot-shooting outfit which could do no wrong.

On Jan. 18 the action returned to Ormond-Simpkins gymnasium where Sewanee suffered her second home loss of the season at the hands of Middle Tenn. State; on Jan. 19 the Tigers again reversed form as they literally slaughtered Transylvania College from Lexington, Kentucky.

Derby, guard; Eyler, guard

Feb. 9 where that evening they lost to Millsaps in a heart-breaker, 53-55. Glenn Shafer, mid-term freshman from Louisville, Ky., and Buck Cain led a futile effort with 17 and 10 points respectively. The game was nip and tuck all the way with the outcome being decided in the final seconds.

The next night the Tigers were able to salvage half of their Mississippi effort by defeating Mississippi College 46-44 with Bob Lockard meshing 10 points to lead the scoring effort. This contest was also a thriller as the Tigers put the ball in a successful "deep-freeze" during the final 5 minutes of the game.

One of the highlights of the season was on Feb. 13 in Nashville. The Tigers, with a host of rabid followers in the stands, met their ancient rival, Vandy. For a time it appeared the game would merely be a run-away as the high-powered Commodores amassed a commanding 36-19 half-time lead. The Tigers returned snarling to the floor, however, and played the future Southeastern Conference tourney winners (conquerors of mighty Kentucky) to a literal standstill. The victory was at least a moral one for Sewanee.

On Feb. 15 Shafer, Cain, and Crawford led the scoring in a 64-59 revenge defeat of the visiting team from Jackson, Mississippi, Millsaps College.

Another victory was added to the ledger on Feb. 17 as Bethel College lost to our spirited Mountain Lads 64-57. Lewis Knipp, another mid-semester freshman, showed a great deal of promise in that particular contest.

A disastrous trip was made to meet the Birmingham-Southern Panthers for a second time in the Magic City of Birmingham. Sewanee started the game like a house afire and was able to leave the floor at half-time with a lead in the scoring column. The second half was a different story, however, as Birmingham-Southern began to hit the hoop from all possible angles. The final score was 75-50.

The final contest of the year was against Lambuth on the Mountain. Lambuth emerged with the victory in a triple over-time. The game was enough to cause high blood pressure in 10-year-olds, and was a heart breaking loss.

Although the record for 1950-51 does not look too impressive on paper, let us not forget that it is one of the best records in Sewanee basketball history. Our young prospects now have a year of experience and in 1952 should prove hard to handle. Basketball has come a long way in the last three years on the Mountain, and win or lose, let us pay tribute to the men who sweat day in and day out to give us the fine teams we have the pleasure of watching in action.

The following men were awarded varsity letters during the past season: Buck Cain, Bob Lockard, Jim Rox, Bill Crawford, Jack Stowers, Sam Derby, Gene Eyler, Glenn Shafer, and Lewis Knipp.

T R A C K

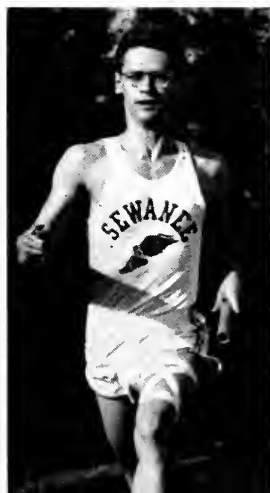

The loss of such stalwarts as Art Perkins, Ed Seagram, and Bill Austin dealt a bad blow to the 1951 edition of the Sewanee track team, but with such capable tracksters as Wynne Ragland, captain this year, Tommy Lamb, Dave Critchlow, Bruce Burch, Johnny Foster, and several other lettermen returning, things aren't so dark on the athletic horizon as they might be.

Last year's thinly-clads had a good record of four wins and a single loss, Vanderbilt proving to be the nemesis again. The tracksters placed third in the TIAC tournament at Sewanee. Wins came at the expense of such teams as East Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech, Emory, and Mississippi College.

There are several top-flight meets scheduled for this year, and under Coach Bridger's competent direction, the Tigers should field a capable team in every one of them.

WARDEN

T E N N I S

Under the capable leadership of Dr. Bruton, Sewanees net team came through last year with one of its most successful seasons. Gordon Warden, playing No. 1 on the team, won the state singles championship, and Ivey Jackson, playing with Dudley Colhoun, now graduated, won the state doubles crown. The Tiger racquetmen won the TIAC team trophy and five of the six medals offered in the tournament. In dual matches, the Tigers won eight and lost five.

Four lettermen, Gordon Warden, Ivey Jackson, Jack Gibson, and Charlie Keyser, will return this season, and to add support, John Jay Hooker and Webb White will be called upon to fill the places vacated by Dudley Colhoun and George Wagner.

A well-filled schedule of about fifteen matches will be played this year. The team manager is Andy Duncan.

The 1951 version of the golf team should prove to be one capable of winning more than its regular share of matches. Belser and Sayles are not returning, but three of last year's linksmen, Tynes, Briggs and Bomar, will be back to perform on the links. The team will be rounded out with the addition to the squad of Gene Eyler, a freshman, who is the present Eastern Interscholastic champion.

Last season the golfers won seven and lost five.

G O L F

They were victors over Tennessee, Centre, Emory, Southwestern, and several other schools, and losers to Auburn, Memphis State, and Vanderbilt. The team placed second in the TIAC tournament in Chattanooga, and under the able direction of Mr. Cheston will be out to better last year's record during the coming 1951 season.
